The date of abandonment is the day after the expiration date of the period set for reply in the Notice of Allowance and Fees Due. Applicant hereby petitions for revival of this application.

A reply in the form of the following papers is enclosed herewith:

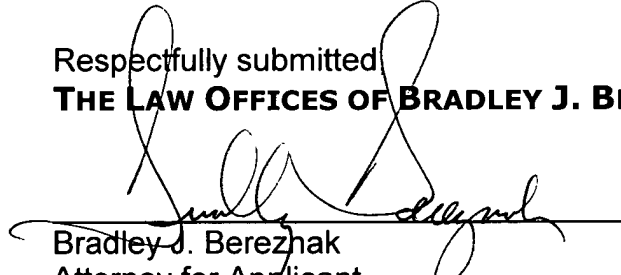

- (a) A copy of the Notice of Abandonment mailed 01/27/10, which indicates that the issue fee and publication fee were not paid due to an inadvertent clerical error (failing to type the deposit account number on form PTOL-85);
- (b) A copy of the previously-submitted form PTOL-85 dated 09/23/09;
- (c) A check in the amount of $3,430 to cover the cost of the issue fee ($1,510), publication fee ($300) and petition fee ($1,620) for a large entity; and
- (d) Statement Regarding Unintentional Delay.

Since this utility/plant application was filed on or after June 8, 1995, no terminal disclaimer is required. The entire delay in filing the required reply from the due date for the required reply until the filing of a grantable petition under 37 CFR 1.137(b) was unintentional.

Please charge any shortages of fees or credit any overcharges of fees to our Deposit Account No. 50-2060.

Respectfully submitted

Statement Regarding Unintentional Delay

Mail Stop Petition
Commissioner for Patents
P.O. Box 1450
Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

Sir:

The undersigned hereby states that the entire delay regarding a response to the Notice of Allowance and Fees Due mailed October 05, 2009 in the above referenced application until the filing of a grantable petition pursuant to 37 CFR 1.137(b), herewith, was unintentional. The reason for the delay is as follows.

On October 19, 2009, the undersigned instructed my administrative assistant, Anna Iosifova, to type in the required information on form PTOL-85 and, once completed, to present it to me for signature and mailing later that day. I instructed Ms. Iosifova to indicate on the form that the issue and publication fees would be paid via our deposit account, which was our routine office practice at the time. In an inadvertent oversight, the deposit account number (50-2060) of our law firm was not typed in the small space at the bottom of the Payment of Fee(s) section (section 4b). Obviously, I also did not notice this omission, as I signed the form and mailed it to the Mail Stop Issue Fee address of the USPTO. Our offices received the return postcard date-stamped October 22, 2009 indicating that the Issue Fee Transmittal was received at the USPTO.

I first learned of this inadvertent clerical oversight was on January 29, 2010, when I received the Notice of Abandonment. Immediately after learning that the application was abandoned, the undersigned attorney prepared the present Petition for Revival under 37 CFR 1.137(b).

Please charge any shortages of fees or credit any overcharges of fees to our Deposit Account No. 50-2060.

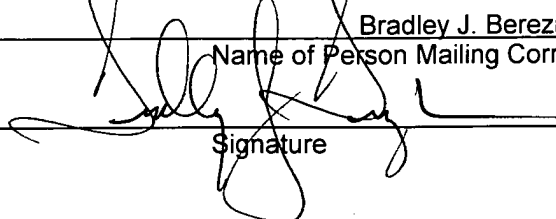

Respectfully submitted,
